Summer 2004

Annual Banquet Scheduled for October 2

The Madison High School Alumni Association's Annual Banquet is scheduled from 5-9 p.m. on Saturday, October 2, at the Madison Art Center. Cost to attend the banquet is $20 per person. Preregistration is necessary. This is in addition to the $10 membership fee. All former students, faculty and staff are welcome to attend.

The menu will feature soup and sandwich (3 choices) and a dessert bar tray with a variety of drinks (one per person is included in the price). Additional items will be available for an extra cost. Entertainment will be provided, and there will be a short awards program to recognize former teachers and the 2004 Distinguished Alumnus.

Located at 403 Gallatin Road, the Madison Art Center is in the heart of old Madison – the old theater. The building has been beautifully renovated and has served many uses over the years, particularly, Henshaw's Furniture, Johnson's Furniture and now, a beautiful art gallery. The gallery features Tennessee artists presenting a variety of media, including stage performances. The Madison Art Center is also a community gathering place, opening its doors to citizen meetings, scheduled entertainment and events like our Alumni Association Banquet.

To register for the Annual Banquet, fill out the registration form on the reverse side of this newsletter, and send it to the Alumni Association. We hope to see you there!

Looking for summer evening entertainment? The Madison Art Gallery hosts a dinner theater event through August. Call the Art Center at (615) 868-8000 for more information.

After several years of valuable service, Stevie Moore (Class of 1966) has resigned as webmaster of our official website. The Alumni Association thanks Stevie for all his work.

The Association is seeking a new webmaster. If you are interested, please contact Sandra Hollingsworth, president, at sandell@bellsouth.net.

Alumni News

Jim Hayes (Class of 1963) has sold his fiber optic test equipment company and moved from Boston to Fallbrook, California, to enjoy horses and cars. Jim writes that he and his wife, Karen, manage a grove of 100 or more fruit trees, hike nature trails, watch the Milky Way and listen to coyotes.

Margaret Edds (Class of 1964) has written An Expendable Man: The Near Execution of Earl Washington, Jr., published through New York University Press. This book is an account of the imprisonment, near-execution and eventual pardon of Earl Washington, Jr. Margaret resides in Richmond, Virginia, and is an editorial writer for the VIRGINIAN-PILOT, the state's largest newspaper.

John (Ozzie) Squires (Class of 1964) is president and CEO of Southern Community Bank, Orlando, Florida.
